

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Grandmaster Hui Liu Chiang Scholarships are awarded by Fountain Project Foundation Board of Directors primarily to students who exhibit exemplary qualities in their approach to study of Pai Da Gong and Dayan Qigong movement arts. Grandmaster Hui Liu spent a lifetime practicing traditional Chinese culture and arts. She actively shared the teachings and knowledge of Dayan Qigong and Pai da Gong as well as painting, meditation and writing, and cultivated teachers to continue her legacy. Scholarships may also benefit students in their pursuit of other opportunities in traditional Chinese culture: calligraphy, painting, poetry, movement arts, and medicine.

The Scholarships in 2023 will focus on Dayan Qigong & Pai Da Gong study at Wen Wu School in El Cerrito, CA, wenwuschool.com and Energy Matters in Piedmont, CA, www.energymattersonline.com

Awards will cover tuition scholarships in Qigong and Pai Da Gong instruction. The scholarships are open to students of all ages.

Other centers led by Wen Wu School Qigong Certified Teachers will be included in the future.

Criteria: Some experience in study of Pai Da Gong and Dayan Qigong movement arts. A 2023 Application must be completed before consideration is given to being awarded a tuition scholarship.

Application Packet

Grandmaster Hui Liu Chiang Scholarship Awards

Contents

1. Information Questionnaire
2. Essay Typed essay (150 - 500 words) discussion of interests in Dayan Qigong, or Other (specify)
3. Reference information from an individual who can speak to applicant's achievement and/or financial need.
4. Submit materials to: ivy@fountainproject.org

APPLICATION INFORMATION QUESTIONNAIRE

Grandmaster Hui Liu Chiang Scholarship

Instructions: Submit one copy of this form in your application packet. Please complete all sections typed or printed legibly in black ink and only one application per applicant.

Personal Background

Last Name _____ First Name _____ Middle _____

Street Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Home Phone _____ Mobile Phone _____

Date of Birth _____ Email address _____

Educational Background

Please list up to 5 movement arts classes you have taken, location, and dates of enrollment. Please specify.

Class

Location

Dates

Educational Objectives

Please list up to three classes towards which you would like to apply the Scholarship. (e.g., Pai Da Gong, Dayan Qigong or Other (specify). Class tuition will vary from time to time and place to place. Applicant can look on Studio Website for current info and schedule.

Essay

Instructions

Fountain Project Scholarships honoring Grandmaster Hui Liu Chiang are awarded to students who exhibit exemplary qualities in their pursuit of “The Five Excellences” of traditional Chinese culture: calligraphy, painting, poetry, martial arts/movement arts, and medicine. 2023 will focus on Dayan Qigong and Pai Da Gong study at Wen Wu School or Energy Matters.

Submit an essay (150 - 500 words) that describes (A) your past, current and planned studies in movement arts at Wen Wu School or Energy Matters. (B) How this practice informs or benefits your life as a whole. (C) How a Scholarship will benefit your studies and responses to any of the “Five Excellences” criteria.

REFERENCE

Provide the 1) name, 2) email address, and 3) phone number of at least one individual who can and is willing to speak to the qualities of the applicant in the areas of his/her movement arts study and practice.

Reference’s Name and Position

Email _____ Phone _____

Certification

I certify that, to the best of my knowledge and ability, the above information is correct, and complete. Fountain Project has the right to verify all information provided. I further certify that I will attend the classes if awarded a scholarship.

Signature

Date